Dated, Chikmagalur 10th August 1907

Sir,

Adverting to your No. 2830 dated 26th November 1906, requesting me to submit a report whether the Inam land endowed to Sanakathi temple at Sangameswarapete, Chikmagalur Taluk, was some years ago transferred to the Bhoota Temple, I have the honor to state that from enquiries made by the Amildar of Chikmagalur, as reported in his No. 1372 dated 12th March 1907, it would appear that no Inam lands were ever endowed to the Sanakathi temple.

2. The people of the place unanimously pray that as the Bhoota temple is now in ruins, the Inam land endowed to it may be transferred to the Sanakathi temple, and the Amildar recommends that their prayer

prayer may be granted. I find from the correspondence that the present enjoyer of the land has no objection to relinquish the land.

3. Under the above circumstances, I request that orders may be kindly issued to transfer the Inam land to the Ganapathi temple.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Deputy Commissioner.
